An unsympathetic cop shooed Dr. Julian P. Thomas and his wind wagon off Broadway yesterday afternoon, but not before the doctor had been photographed several times, on the wind wagon, under it, before it and behind it, and had been interviewed by sixteen reporters and a journalist.

Some altruist sent a hurry call to the newspapers about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, asking that reporters be despatched to the neighborhood of Broadway and Seventy-second street, as Dr. Thomas was about to sally forth with his helicoptere, or winged screw, and beat up and down Broadway under full power. It was hinted that the reporters must not make themselves known to the doctor, as he was averse to newspaper publicity.

When the reporters got there Dr. Thomas and the helicoptere hadn't arrived but there was a crowd of men and women and boys near the Seventy-second street station of the subway. Pretty soon the Thomas family arrived in the helicoptere and an automobile, the doctor proudly driving his overgrown tricycle, and Mrs. Thomas, the baby and Tilly, the maid, standing by in an auto in case he needed a tow. The wind wagon rounded the corner into Broadway, its gasolene motor making more racket than a motorcycle. The photographers took up positions, the populace cheered and

Then the motor quit thumping and cracking, gave a tired sigh and went out of business. The doctor frowned and hopped off. Somebody laughed unfeelingly and the doctor got red.

"Get away from here, blast it!" he said, as the crowd closed in around the sick wind wagon. "The reporters and photographers may stay, though. Anybody want to take my picture?"

may stay, though. Anybody want to take my picture?"

After the photographers had done their duty Dr. Thomas towed the wind wagon to a garage near Seventy-third street and Broadway, went to work on his own automobile and fitted its motor to the helicoptere. A few minutes afterward he mounted the breeze cart and set sail up Broadway. This time the big four bladed propeller forward gripped the air and pulled the machine along swiftly. The photographers took more pictures and the doctor whirled her around and started back.

Then a mounted policeman, a cop named her around and started back.

Then a mounted policeman, a cop named Brady, who labored under the impression that it was his business to keep traffic undisturbed in Broadway, rode down toward the doctor. Thomas got off the winged screw, adjusted his medals so they would show better in the pictures and faced Brady, while the crowd tittered.

"Yuh'll have to cut it out," said Brady.
"What d'ye think this street is for, anyway? Show me your license."

"Yuh'll have to cut it out," said Brady.
"What d'ye think this street is for, anyway?
Show me your license."
"Sir," said the doctor, "you mistake.
This is a scientific experiment, conducted in the presence of the public and the prese.
This is a helicoptere, built for the purpose of testing the force and lifting power of winds."

"Produce your license or beat it," said Brady, preparing to dismount.

"I have an automobile license which ought to cover it." said the doctor, getting in line with the cameras.

"This thing ain't an automobile," said the mounted cop. "I ain't sure whether any license would cover it. Now go away from here."

Dr. Thomas moved the helicoptere over to the sidewalk and then called the reporters around him. He was sure that the problem, of Polar research would be solved as soon as he had improved the winged screw and further tested it.

"Little things will go wrong," he said. "You will observe that the propeller is held in place by fine plano wire. The other day the plano wire broke, permitting the propeller to free itself, and it whirled into the air, higher and higher, until it disappeared over the top of a tall building."

The camera men took his picture again.

"To avoid interference by the police," he went on, "I shall probably conduct my

The camera men took his picture again.
"To avoid interference by the police,"
he went on, "I shall probably conduct my next experiment in the open country. If the photographers would like to take my picture, I am ready." They took him

Brady stayed on the job until the doctor and his wind wagon had gone and then rode thoughtfully away.

TITLE OF COUNT FOR SALE. De Akna of Hungary Will Sell the Docu-

The news was broken to various newspapers yesterday that Coloman Nemes de Akna, who says he is a Hungarian Count, is now an American citizen and wishes to dispose of the papers granting him his title. He will separate from these for $10,000. If there is more money in sight Do Akna is willing to adopt somebody son-in form merely, says Hugo Woerle, a Harlem restaurant keeper, who is looking after the business end of the affair—and to confer a title upon the lad. Woerle assured a reporter that this latter would be as easy as rolling off a log and perfectly legitimate. The son would then be a full fledged Count and could hand down the News that a title was for sale leaked out in this letter received by the newspapers

Januar the 5th. DEAR EDITOR: Untersigned begs to Atvise how to dispose of a moast rear Antiquar Paper, the same is a certivicate of a Count title signet by Michael Apafl, King of hungaria Transilvania dated the year of 1664. I would like to sell the same at a Price of ten thousand Dollars. I also have a Bible 500 years old, at present time exhibited at the National Museum Budapest. I would give you permission to photograph the papers if you feel interested and help me make et Known. Thanking you for favor, Sir I am yours,

COLOMAN NEMES DE ARNA, per Hugo Worrle,

381 West 125th street.

"Count de Akna does not live in New York city," said Mr. Woerle. "He is a very close friend of mine. Recently the Count took out citizenship papers. Now he says he needs money worse than he does a title. For $10,000 he will part with the papers."

the papers."

He then went on to tell how the title could be bestowed upon a family by the means of a child.

of a child.

"It's no disgrace to do such a thing. In fact it is quite honorable. Some museum might be glad for the papers or some ambitious person the title. The papers are most interesting. It's doubtful if there are more valuable documents in existence."

Here two musty parchments were exhibited that looked as if they might be as old. Several seals, each about the size of the bottom of a large coffee cup, were attached.

Washington Society Notes.

Washington, Jan. 5.-The Ambassador to Great Britain and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, and Mrs. John Ridgeley Carter and Miss Mildred Carter, wife and daughter of the first secretary of the American Embassy in London, returned to-day to New York.

Mrs. Meicalf, wife of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor, was the guest of honor at a tea this afternoon given by Mrs. Southerland, wife of Capt. W. H. H. Southerland.

Miss Anne T. Morgan, daughter of Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan, and Miss De Wolf of New York are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John R. McLean, who gave a dinner dance this evening. Senator and Mrs. Dryden entertained a party at dinner last evening in honor of the Vice-President and Mrs. Fairbanks. Harry Coleman Drayton of New York arrived in Washington to-day to be the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore P. Shonts.

YESTERDAY AT THE OPERAS. Bonizetti's "L'Elisir d'Amore" Excellently

Charles Gilibert at the Manhattan Opera House yesterday afternoon sharply defined the difference between a buffo and a buffoor This distinction has almost been lost on the Italian stage, where idiocy of aspect, action and speech and a style borrowed from the elevating spectacle of Polichinello are the principal stock in tradeof the buffo barytone A falsetto cackle replaces the old fashioned parlando and singing is abolished alto-gether, because buffos are chosen from the ranks of those who have lost the ability to

The opera at the Manhattan yesterday afternoon was that delightful fancy of Donizetti, "L'Elisir d'Amore," and Mr. Gilibert assumed the rôle of Dr. Dulcamara. He was easily the star of the occasion, because it was owing to him that the merry cause it was owing to him that the merry little farce rose to its proper level and became an entertainment at which intelligent people might be amused without forgetting their self-respect. When Dr. Dulcamara is the conventional Italian buffoon, the entire action of the farce becomes silly, improbable and inane. But when the delectable Doctor pervades the stage with his assurance, his glib tongue, his personal magnetism and his splendor of person and equipage, the debevilment of the villagers, and especially of the stupid Nemorino, becomes comprehensible and thoroughly enjoyable.

and especially of the stupid Nemorino, becomes comprehensible and thoroughly enjoyable.

Mr. Gilibert looked, acted and sangsthe part like an artist. He exaggerated quite as much as was necessary, while he imparted to the impersonation an admirable air of sincerity. Mr. Bonci, the Nemorino, looked an easy victim. He was the personification of stupidity in appearance and action. Of course he sang the music beautifully, for he does not know how to sing any other way. Mile. Pinkert was a tolerable Adina and Mr. Seveilhac a Sergeant Belcore of about the same calibre. Mile. Trentini was the Gianetta and as is her custom imparted some character to the rôle. Mr. Campanini conducted the performance with his unfailing skill and the general results showed that the production had been carefully prepared. By it Mr. Hammerstein added another item to the debt under which he has placed operagoers in this town.

At the Metropolitan the matinée, opera was "Lakme," which was repeated with the same cast as at the first performance. What was said then in the way of comment may be permitted to stand. Nothing can be added to it with any profit. In the evening the operas were "La Traviata" at the Manhattan and "Siegfried" at the Metropolitan. Mme. Donalda was the Violetta in the former, but otherwise the cast was the same as on Wednesday evening. Mme Donalda was quite as plump and healthy of appearance as her predecessor. She sang the music with taste and facility. M. Renaud's Giorgio was again a most striking feature of the performance. This barytone vitalizes every character he touches by his superb art.

The "Siegfried" performance at the Metropolitan at the striking feature of the performance as the same as on the striking feature of the performance at the Metropolitan at the Metropolitan and the striking feature of the performance at the Metropolitan and the striking feature of the performance at the Metropolitan and the striking feature of the performance at the Metropolitan and the striking feature of the performance at the Me

The "Siegfried" performance at the Metropolitan did not differ in any material repect from its forerunner. It was enjoyed by a large audience.

WINTER WEATHER AT TUXEDO. Skating on the Trout Pond-Dinners at the Clubhouse and the Cottages.

TUXEDO PARK, Jan. 5 .- Clear, crisp winter weather to-day favored the Tuxedo colonists for their weekend entertainments A large number of well known people came out from town to pass Sunday. There was a special dinner at the clubhouse, at which several of the cottagers and their guests were present. The skating on the trout pond was the chief ou for sport. Mr. and Mrs. Archibald D. Russell of

Princeton arrived at the clubhouse on Friday and entertained a large party at dinner day and entertained a large party at dinner and luncheon. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Barber, Miss Barber, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald D. Russell, A. D. Russell, Jr., Miss Russell, Miss Swanson and Miss Leverich.

House parties were in vogue at many of the cottages. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Lawrence Green, who passed the week intown, arrived to-day and entertained a house party at the Vess villa. Among others who gave house parties followed by dinners to-night were Mrs. and Mr. H. P. Loomis in the small Cutting Villa, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Knox Bell in the Herbert Pell villa, Mrs. Charles J. Coulter and Mr. and Mrs. Grenville Kane.

Lieuts-Gov. and Mrs. Lewis Stuyvesant

Lieut.-Gov. and Mrs. Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler, who have taken a house in Albany, returned to their Tuxedo villa to-day for Miss Pauline French passed the week in Newport and Boston as the givest of her aunt, Mrs. Alfred Vanderbilt. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mortimer closed their Tuxedo villa to-day and opened their town house at 700 Fifth avenue. They will return to Tuxedo each weekend during the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Ronalds arrived at the Clubhouse to-day for a brief stay.

MUST TRY SIMPSON OR BAIL HIM. Justice Cayner Talks to the District Attor. ney of Suffolk County. James W. Simpson, the New York dentist, who was indicted for the murder of his father-in-law, Bartley T. Horner at North-port, L. I., on December 27, 1905, and who has since been confined in the jail at Riverhead, was brought before Supreme Court Justice Gaynor in Brooklyn on habeas corpus proceedings yesterday morning. His counsel asked that he be tried this month counsel asked that he be tried this month or released on $1,000 bail. District Attorney Furman in response said that the delay in the case was due to the fact that he could never get a Judge to try the case.

"There has been a lack of Judges." he said, "as your Honor well knows, and this is responsible for the delay. I have two murder cases to try before the January term and am willing to take up the Simpson case in February."

"There has never been a lack of Judges."

case in February."
There has never been a lack of Judges for Suffolk county since I have been on the bench," said Justice Gaynor. "Don't try to throw it on the bench. There is ample facility for Suffolk county where the civil cases take only about three days of the term. I don't see anything in the way of trying five murder cases in a month.

term. I don't see anything in the way of trying five murder cases in a month.

"This man should have been tried eight months ago. There is no reason for the delay. The District Attorney should never overexert himself to convict a man. The law does not demand it. I order that this man shall be tried in the January term or be released on $1,000 bail."

$2,000 Place for Ex-Coroner

Judge Norman S. Dike of the County Court, Brooklyn, has appointed ex-Coroner Philip T. Williams as his secretary at a salary of $2,000 a year. Mr. Williams has long been active in Republican politics and is the leader in the Thirteenth district. He sided with Col. Michael J. Dady in his recent primary scrap with Timothy L. Woodruff, but recently made peace with the letter.

The Seaguers. Sailing this morning on the Hamburg-American Line steamship Prinz August Wilhelm for West Indian ports are:

Mrs. E. C. Adams, Dr. W. H. Allen, Mrs. George W. Blackwell, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Cubberly, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Doubleday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamilton Scott, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Wilbur.

WILLIAMSPORT, Jan. 5,-John McEwen mos of New York and Miss Josephine Bowman Coleman of this city, were married to-day in Trinity Episcopal Church. The to-day in Trinity Episcopal Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. G. O. Foley of Philadelphia. J. S. Chamberlain of Manchester, England, was best man. Miss Milicent Coleman of this city was maid of honor. The Misses Amos of New York were bridesmaids. The ushers were John Auchincloss, Edwin North and W. Dennison of New York, H. F. Field of Berwick, Pa., Arthur Starr of Sewickley, Pa., and James Kennable of Buffalo. Mr. and Mrs. Amos will make their home at Dongan Hills, Staten Island.

Le Boutillier Brothers

JANUARY, 1907 ANNUAL SALE OF

Figured India Silks (65,000 yards at)

These Figured India Silks are all new goods of standard makes, in choice designs and FULLY GUARANTEED. The patterns are exclusive and controlled by us. These goods are of exceptionally good value, the best grade of these popular Silks We have ever offered at this price, and are unequalled for summer wear.

Also showing many new lines in

SPRING AND SUMMER SILKS

in plain and fancy weaves, checks, stripes, broche and figures, etc., very destrable fabrics, at

EXCEPTIONALLY LOW PRICES

Le Boûtillier Brothers West Twenty-third Street.

Burnham & Phillips

We offer you the finest collection of imported cloths ever displayed in America. Valued 31 $100,000

It is now our loss. All stock offered at tremendous sacrifices.

25 10 331/3%

Because in the course of opening our Broadway store we were delayed last fall;

Because in the course of an approaching winter that doesn's come we find ourselves overstocked—filled with choice cloths valued at $100,000. $30 Suitings so Crouserings

now $20 Massau Street Below Beekman

now $6 Exclusively high Class Cailoring

$45 Overcoatings now $30 Broadway at 27 Street

THE WAYNESBURG BANK WRECK. Rediscounts and Other Frauds Perpetrated

by the Cashler Exceed $2,000,000. WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 .- The following statement in regard to the affairs of the Farmers and Drovers' National Bank of Waynesburg, Pa., recently taken charge of by the Comptroller of the Currency, was given out at the Comptroller's office

"The amount of indebtedness of the Farmers and Drovers' National Bank of counted notes and other frauds perpetrated by Cashier Ripehart, is still unknown. Notes have been daily presented to the eceiver since his appointment bearing the ndorsement of the Farmers and Drovers good faith by different banks throughout the country and it is claimed the bank is the country and it is claimed the bank is liable upon its indorsement. A resolution purporting to have been regularly passed by the directors giving the president, vice-president and cashier each authority to borrow or rediscount has been upon the records for more than a year. The amount of these rediscounts now known to exist is $1,121,463.21. 'It is probable that more such claims will be presented, held by banks which may not care to present their claims sooner than necessary.

"It is impossible to discover the existence of these claims except by voluntary statements of Rinehart and disclosure of the owners and holders of the notes.

As Rinehart is utterly unreliable for a complete statement, the receiver can only await the pleasure of the banks holding await the pleasure of the banks holding the claims.

"Many of these notes are either forged or were paid by the makers and carelessly left with Rhinehart. A large number of the notes which are genuine are made by parties financially irresponsible. The bank also holds much of the paper of the same parties who are liable as makers of the rediscounted notes.

"The liabilities of the bank, including the liability upon rediscounts, will exceed liability upon rediscounts, will exceed $2,000,000. The developments demonstrate that the Comptroller was not mistaken in declaring the bank insolvent on December 12 and placing it in the hands of a receiver. The appointment was made as soon as it became apparent, from information received by the national bank experience of the second of the secon aminer from sources external to the bank, that rediscounts existed to such an amount as to render the bank probably insolvent."

Parker Wins Another Round in the Fight to Oust "Boss" Baker.

FORT EDWARD, N. Y., Jan. 5 .- When William E. Bailiss was elected second assistant doorkeeper at Albany this week "Boss" Baker of Comstock was forced to swallow a most bitter pill administered him by ex-Assemblyman James S. Parker of Salem, and lost the third round of the fight being waged against him by Parker for control of Washington county Republican politics. The first round was also won by Parker, who defeated Baker's candidate for chairman of the county executive committee during the last campaign, but the second round went to Baker when he named the chairman of the Board of Supervisors. The fourth round is to be contested at the March caucuses. Parker is preparing to wage a bitter war against Baker at the spring caucuses, and all signs indicate the downfall of the man who has been boss of Washington county Republican politics for over thirty years. Boss" Baker of Comstock was forced to r over thirty years.

Peace Medals for Americans

The Association for International Conciliation, having its headquarters in Paris, has through its council general recently voted medals of honor to several Ameri cans in recognition of their part in promoting international good will and comity Among those who have recently received the medals are Elihu Root, Secretary of the medals are Elihu Root, Secretary of State; Andrew D. White and Seth Low, members of the American delegation to the first Hague conference; President Butler of Columbia University and Congressman Richard Bartholdt.

While playing tag with a number children at Eighth avenue and Twelfth street early yesterday afternoon, Marcella Moran, 5 years old, of 293 West Twelfth street, was struck down by the horses attached to a heavy oil wagon. She died in St. Vincent's Hospital a short while afterward

IN SOCIETY. Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Iselin of 711 Fifth venue gave a dance on Friday night at Sperry's, Mrs. Iselin and her débutante daughter, Miss Louise Iselin, received near the entrance of the big ballroom. Supper was served after midnight in the banquet was served after midnight in the banquet hall. Before this the dancing was infor-mal. Afterward there was a cotillon. Among the dancers were Misses Irene Sherman, Harriet Alexander, Jean Reid, Gwendolyn Burden, Gladys Mills, Beatrice Mills, Evelyn Parsons, Mabel Gerry, Adeline Havemeyer, Susan McCook, Effie Pearson, Mills, Evelyn Parsons, Mabel Gerry, Adeline Havemeyer, Susan McCook, Effie Pearson, Constance Warren, Cornelia Harriman, Grace Bigelow Tracy, Edith Miller, Eleanor Mortimer, Mildred Sherman, Mary Newbold, Louise Knowlton, Laura F. Delano, Sadie Jones, Dorothy Whitney, Janet Fish, Georgiana Farr, Anna Peabody, Margaret Dix, Corrine Robinson and Emily Welles, Worthington Whitehouse, Craig Wadsworth, Malcolm Sloane, William F. Whitehouse, Stewart Witherbee, Ashbel P. Barney, Buell Hollister, Monson Morris, Sherman Day, J. de Wolf Cutting, Grosvenor Atterbury, Arthur Chcate, Robert L. Gerry, William W. Hoffman, Sheldon Whitehouse, Mongure Robinson, T. Suffern Tailer, Frederick A. Juilliard and Louis Brugmere.

Governor and Mrs. Beekman Winthrop. who have been the guests here of Mrs. Robert Winthrop, sailed yesterday for Porto Twelfth Night festivities include some ver smart dances at private homes and a public ball. Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish gives one of her big dinners on Tuesday night, followed by singing by opera artists. The débu-tantes and youthful set generally will at-tend the Second Junior Cotillon at Sherry's. Stowe Phelps will lead the cotillon, which will be danced before the midnight supper.

Worthington Whitehouse is now the only one of the well known cotillon leaders available. Alexander M. Hadden, who had been secured for some of the coming funcbeen secured for some of the coming functions, is, like Elisha Dyer, Jr., in mourning for his father. Craig Wadsworth, who led at the dance given by Mrs. David P. Morgan for her débutante granddaughters, Miss Mildred Carter and Miss Gladys Rissel, is here only temporarily. Stowe Phelps is apparently the leader now most in demand. He led at the Henry and Boardman dances on Tuesday and Wednesday nights and the Senior Cotillon on Thursday. Theodore Dixon and Lewis Spencer Morris led at the University Cotillon.

Comte de la Boissere Masarin arrived week ago. Lady Ryland of London has been the guest of her brother, E. V. Ryland. at Lakewood, N. J., over the holidays. Sir Aston and Lady Webb of London spent Sir Aston and Lady Webb of London spent the week at the Manhattan. Countess Stanislaus de Castellane, who with her husband was the guest of the Hon. Hugo Baring and Lady Evelyn Baring at the Manhattan Opera House on Wednesday night, looked charming in white lace costume, with rose ribbon in her coiffure and a pink rose on her corsage. Cora, Countess of Strafford, has been at the Gotham.

Miss Caroline de Forest and Miss Mary R. Callender passed the holidays with Mrs. N. N. Hooper and Miss Mary Shars Mrs. N. N. Hooper and Miss Mary Sharswood at Stonington, Conn. They are now in their new apartment in the Tiffany Building, 27 East Seventy-second street, which is above the one they occupied for several seasons, and has still finer big salons in which they can entertain large parties. Frequently nearly 300 of their friends assemble at their Sunday afternoon musical teas, for which no cards are issued. The first for this winter will be given this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cutler Whitman will make their home in New York. They sailed for this port after their wedding on Wednesday at Panama at the home of the bride's father, Herbert G. Squiers, the American Minister. Mr. Whitman is a son of Clarence Whitman and the bride a niece of Mrs. Frank Hunter Potter.

Mrs. Theodore A. V. Trotter will give theatre party next Wednesday night for her daughter, Miss Helen N. Trotter. There will be 100 guests, and after the performance there will be a supper at Sherry's, followed by informal dancing. Mrs. John L. Rogers will also give a big theatre and supper party Wednesday. On the following night, January 10, Mrs. Henry Tifford will give a theatre party of 100 guests for

Broadway at Thirteenth St.

Hackett Carhart & G

Broadway at Thirteenth St.

A Sale That Transcends Anything of Its Kind Ever Organized---For Women Misses

It Involves Our Highest Grade Suits, Costumes, Gowns, Coats and Skirts For Street and Evening Service At Daring Price Reductions

Suits at $12.50 the Former Prices

Suits & Gowns at $25 the Former Prices

38 Eton Suits, Chiffon Broadcloth, were $49.50
60 Tight-fitting Suits of Broadcloth, were 49.50
43 Pony Suits of Chiffon Broadcloth, were 45.00
46 Cutaway Suits of Chiffon Broadcloth, 50.00
45 Coat Suits of Worsted & Broadcloth, 45.00 Black Coat Suits for Mourning, were Pinafore Suits of fine Velveteen, were Eton Suits of fine Velvet, were Half-fitted Suits of fine Velvet, were Odd models in various fabrics, were

15 Gowns of Crepe de Chine, stik lined, 5 Gowns of White Net Lace, silk lined, 40 Gowns of Messaline, self color lace, 10 Gowns of Voile over Taffeta, were 24 Lingerie Gowns, were

Coats at $15 the Former

Tourist Coats of Plaids, were Laose Black Cloth Coats, were Long Tight-fitting Broadcloth Coats, to Long Tight-fitting Covert Coats, were Pony Coats of Broadcloth, were Satin and Stik Rubber Coats, were Evening Coats of Broadcloth, were
Evening Capes of Broadcloth, were
Evening Capes of Broadcloth, were Raincoats in a variety, were Velour Coats in many models, were

Imported Evening Wraps & Gowns, $55 & $98 Values $100 to $300

These garments from abroad are masterworks in lace, chiffon, velvet and hand embroidered broadcloths mounted over soft silks and chiffons.

Suits at $19.75 the Former Prices.

68 Pinafore Suits of Broadcloth, were 39.50
36 Eton Suits of Serge and Cheviot, were 39.50
45 Pony Suits, Broadcloth and Velvet, were 35.00
19 Half-fitted Suits of Cheviot, were 32.50
35 Coat Suits, Fancy Vests, were 35.00

Suits & Gowns $39.50 the Former Prices

12 Fancy Eton Suits of Voile, silk lined, $79.50
18 Fancy Eton Suits, French Broadcloth, $5.00
10 Military Suits of French Broadcloth, 65.00
8 Blouse Suits of French Broadcloth, 69.50
14 Fancy Pony Suits, French Broadcloth, 69.50
14 Fancy tight-fitting Suits of Broadcloth, 95.00
8 Long Coat Suits of Velvet, were 85.00
6 Blouse Suits of Velvet, were 79.50
5 Princess Eton Suits of Broadcloth, 85.00
22 Odd Suits in various models, 55.00 to 98.00

12 Gowns, Satin Crepe de Chine over Silk, $79.50 4 Gowns of Veiling over Taffeta, were 65.00 10 Gowns of Batiste & Renaissance over Silk, 85.00 2 Gowns, flowered Crepe de Chine over Silk, 59.50 6 Gowns, All-over Lace over Taffeta. 85.00

Coats at $22.50 the Former Prices.

Evening Capes of Broadcloth, were
Evening Coats of Broadcloth, were Automobile Coats in various styles, were Long, loose and half-fitted Broadcloths, were Box Coats of Tan Covert, were Long Military Coats, were Velour Coats in divers styles, were Broadtail Velour Coats, were Fine Black Coats for elderly women, were Fancy Short Coats, were 49.50 35.00 39,50 35.00

350 Tailored Skirts, $3.95 & $5.00

Values $7.50 to $12.50

Black, blue and brown Cheviots Panamas and Broadcloths mannish mixtures; Plaids, Checks and Stripes. All presented in the new plaited and kilted models.

Persian lamb or sable squirrel collars. Value

$32.50, at ......$22,50

A Sale of Fur Pieces and Garments

Persian Lamb Sets Vaiue $20 At	$12.50
Natural Squirrel Sets	$12.50
Sable Squirrel Sets Vaiue $22 At	$13.50
Persian Paw Sets	$10.50
Sable and Isabella Fox Sets Value $25 At :	$21.25
Natural Mink Sets	$84.50
4-Skin Scarf of Double Fur-10-Skin Drop Over Muff, 5 Heads and Tails
Black Lynx Sets Value $75 At:	$53.50
Fur Lined Coats for small women in brown, blue Black Broadcloth Coats, guaranteed satin	lined,

$5.75 & $7.50 Waists Reduced to $2.05

Involved are about 200 Waists of net taffeta and messaline in a great diversity of models-all colors. but only a few of each-Some are slightly soiled.

Hackett Carbart & G

Broadway at Thirteenth Street

Hackett Carhart & Co

her daughter, Miss Isabel Tilford, which will also be followed by a supper and dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Wilmerding, who sail this week for Europe, will pass the winter at St. Moritz. Mr. and Mrs. William Bayard Cutting, Jr., will also pass the winter there. Mrs. Maturin L. Delafield, Jr., who has been at St. Moritz for several seasons with her husband, now has an apartment in Paris.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish will give a big dinner and musicale next Tuesday night.

Among those who will sing will be BresslerGianoli, the Manhattan Opera Company's Carmen, and Bassi, the new tenor.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Auchincloss and Percy Hall Jennings will take place next Saturday afternoon, January 12, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Auchinoloss, 27 West Fifty-third street. Only relatives of the couple and some intimate friends have been invited. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick B. Jennings.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Peters are occupying their new house at 32 East Fifty-second street. Mr. and Mrs. Philip Livingston, who are in mourning and not entertaining this winter, are now at their town house, 992 Fifth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Richard, who sail on Tuesday on the Kaiser Wilhelm II., will pass some time in Egypt and the Riviera pass some time in Egypt and the Riviera.
Miss Harriet Robb, one of the very rich girls, a daughter of J. Hampden Robb, who sails also on January 8, to return at Easter, will pass the intervening time in Germany,
France and Italy. Mme. Raoul Mourichon of Paris, who has been the guest of her brother, Grenville Kane, at Tuxedo and is just now at 11 East Thirty-second street, will sail for France next Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt were booked to sail yesterday on the Amerika and are scheduled to remain abroad for ten weeks. Mrs. Vanderbilt is not yet in robust health. Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt will be the guests of Mrs. George Law at her house on Park Lane, London, and will then tour in the south of France. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt are now in an apartment in Stoneleigh Court, Washington. Mr. and Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, who passed the holidays at their country house at Oakland, L. I., have been constantly in town. Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt are now in their Fifth avenue residence, which they have occupied so little since it was bought from Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont. The improvements in it have been on a much more elaborate scale than was first contemplated. They attended the diplomatic reception on Thurs-Mr. and Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt attended the diplomatic reception on Thursday night at the White House.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Collier were among the New Yorkers who attended the diplomatic reception at the capital on Thursday might. Mrs. Collier is apparently the only member of her own family who prefers life on this side of the water. James J. Van Alen comes over only for his annual summer fishing trip, and her sister, Miss May Van Alen, has not visited this side for the last two years. Mr. and Mrs. J. Laurens Van Alen are abroad this season.

Following the opening art exhibition last night at the Lotos Club of the paintings of the late John H. Twachtman will be the "ladies' days," to-morrow and Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Mills returned on Tuesday from their country place at Staatsburg, N. Y., to their town house, 2 East

The second meeting of the Club Marivaux will be held to-morrow at the residence of Mrs. Whitney Warren. The first one, held last week, was at the home of Mrs.

Cadwalader Jones, 21 East Eleventh street. Ernest Perrin of Paris will read a French comedy. M. Perrin has given readings at Newport summers and assisted in amateur at Newport summers and assisted in amateur performances of French plays. The club members comprise Mrs. Cadwalader Jones, Mrs. Clacence H. Mackay, Mrs. Frederick Tams, Mrs. Henry Poor, Mrs. James Speyer, Mrs. Whitney Warren, Mrs. John Clinton Gray, Mrs. Goelet Gallatin, Mrs. Frederick W. Whitridge, Mrs. John B. Trevor, Mrs. F. McNeil Bacon, Jr., Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan, Mrs. E. Rollins Morse, Mrs. John S. Barnes, Mrs. Ogden Codman, Mrs. E. Henry Harriman, Mrs. P. Cooper Hewitt, Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt and Mrs. Douglas Robinson.

The wedding of Miss Sidney Cornelia Ormsby Clark and Edward Schrenkeisen will take place to-morrow in the chantry of Grace Church. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Rush Clark of Brooklyn.

Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Hoffman Porter of 181 West Seventy-third street will give a dinner of twelve covers to-morrow night dinner of twelve covers to-morrow night.
Cards are out for several dinners to precede the Whitney dance. Mr. and Mrs. William Bayard Cutting give a dinner on Tuesday for Ambassador and Mrs. Whitelaw Reid.
Mayor and Mrs. George B. McClellan give one of the Thursday night dinners Mr. and Mrs. I. Townsend Burden will give a dinner of sixty covers on Friday night, their guests going later to the dance given by Mrs. William Douglas Sloane. Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Dimock of 25 East Sixtieth street give a dinner for Ambassador and Mrs. Joel Nott Allen will give a bridge party next Tuesday evening, January 8, for Mrs. F. L. Schmidt at the Allen studio, 114 East Twenty-third street. Mrs. F. Leopold Schmidt will give a bridge party at her home, 54 East Seventy-fifth street, the following day.

Mrs. William Gardner Read, Jr., of 48 West Fifty-first street announced yesterday the engagement of her daughter, Helen, to Mr. Stephen Barker.

The Misses Florence and Marjorie Bourne, daughters of Commodore F. G. Bourne gave a dance on Friday night in the ball-room of the Hotel Gotham. Fifty of their friends attended.

The Pure Food Law became effective Jan. 1st. The NewYork Bottling Co.'s (LUDIN-RAYNER BOLEN & BYRNE)

Are Always Pure Made from Cane Sugar Exclusively. Without preservatives of any kind. Free from Aniline Colors or Saccharin.

The Kind that's Fit to Drink"

ITHACA, N. Y., Jan. 5.-The engagement

Ginger Ale and Carbonated Beverages

ENGAGEMENT AT CORNELL. Capt. Cook of the Football Team to Marry Miss Erway, a Sophomore.

of Capt, George Tandy Cook of the Cornell football team and Miss Grace Erway, a sophomore in the College of Arts and Sciences, was announced this afternoon at a luncheon given in her honor by her roommate, Miss Jane Caldwell of Brookiyn. Cook entered Cornell from the University Cook entered Cornell from the University School of Cleveland. He has been very prominent in Cornell athletics ever since he entered. He has played left tackle on the football team for three years, was captain last fall, and has been reelected as leader for next year. He has won second place for Cornell at the intercollegiate track meet for the last two years, and is very popular among the undergraduates. He elongs to many clubs and societies.

Miss Erway's home is in Trumanaburg.

Y. She entered Cornell fram the Ithace High School and is now in her sophomore year. She is very popular among the women of the university.

Dr. Sheffield's

Used by the Elite of the World Since 1850.

Dr. Shemeld's Tooth Rowder put up conveniently for Tourists.

OLD EVERTWHERE